

Song of the Hill

Stories & song exploring the history & communities of Clee Hill

Friday 9th May 2025, 6:30 - 7:30pm

St Laurence's Church

Ludlow, SY8 1AN

Written, curated and presented by St John's Doddington songwriter in residence Sid Peacock

Featuring singers from Clee Hill Primary Academy and local choirs, a live funky big band of Surge Orchestra musicians and stunning accompanying visuals

This year, composer and musician Sid Peacock has been working with the local community to co-create new songs and music exploring the history and communities of Clee Hill, in his role as Songwriter in Residence for St John's Doddington.

You can expect to hear songs about giants battling, the local rugby club and pub, Bobby's shop and of course the natural beauty and love for Clee. The performance will also feature music and tales of ancient Clee, Dennis Crowther, wartime Clee and local historian Alf Jenkins.

Tickets are FREE but limited. You can reserve your ticket online by heading to the link below or scanning the QR code
