Gareth Price Biography:

Before becoming an Organ Scholar at the University of Durham, where he read Music, Gareth was a Head Chorister and Organ Scholar at St Asaph Cathedral in North Wales. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Organists and is in great demand as a recitalist and accompanist, having played and conducted in many cathedrals in the UK (including Westminster Abbey and cathedrals such as St Paul's, Westminster, Winchester, Salisbury, Coventry and York Minster), as well as throughout Europe and in the USA. He has made a number of publicly available recordings and was awarded a Doctorate in 2018 for his research into the 20th century Parisian organist/composer, Maurice Duruflé. When not teaching, playing or examining for the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music, Gareth likes to fill his time drinking fine wine and doing crosswords
